

2017 MAER Conference Evaluation Form

1. Rate the conference overall. On a scale from 1-10, indicate how likely it is that you would recommend this conference. 1 being not likely and 10 being very likely?

---

2. Were your accessibility needs met at this MAER conference?

---

3. Indicate the top 5 sessions attended you feel best met your needs for professional growth.

General Session: Teri Chapman: Current Status of the Office of Special Education
Vendor Highlights

How to Teach GPS and Have Fun Doing It!

Blast Off with Braille Blaster™

State Summative Assessment Updates

Low Vision Magnifiers: Are They all the Same?

Guide Dog Preparedness for your Teenage Students

A Structure for Braille Reading Lessons

Signed and Delivered: Collaboration for the VI Student in the DHH Classroom

You Can Start Your Own Summer Program

Future of O&M / Issues in O&M

AAC Accommodations for CVI Students

Don't Judge a Book By Its Lack of Cover

Life's a Blur: Meeting the Challenges of My Visual Impairment

Issues in the Field of Visual Impairment

Get Your Life Together with Google

Issues in the Field of Vocational Rehabilitation Therapy

General Session: William Robinson III, CPA, Director of BSBP

Advocate and Communicate

Improving Requests: Understanding What MDE-LIO is Doing for You

Traumatic Brain Injury: What it is & What to Do About It

The Delta Project: College Prep Program for Students with Disabilities

Getting Outdoors-Breaking Barriers

Creating Practical Tactile Graphics for Teachers and Paraprofessionals

Who Needs an Intervener?

School Transition or WIOA or Both?

TCVI 101

Completing Assignments with an Android Braille Display Tablet

Key Symptoms of Vision Loss That May Lead to Psychological Intervention

Preparing Students to Work? A Unique Pre-Employment Transition Program

Behavioral Impacts on Yielding of Drivers for Pedestrians Who are Blind

Vision Services in Rural Counties

What is a Blog and Why Should I Have One?

Disorders of Binocularity

4. Please suggest topics/presenters you would like to see at an upcoming conference.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. Suggestions to the Board:

Is there anything you would like to suggest to the MAER Board to improve the conference or better meet the needs of the members?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

See you next year!!!

